Can't beat them for the price

December 18, 2018

Size: 2 pack Verified Purchase

I bought a pair of these lipos for my WLToys 12428. I also rotate them in my Taranis radio controller. So I've run about 30-40 cycles on both at this point and I have to say I couldn't ask for more. These batteries seem well made. The battery itself feels tight and sturdy and the leads are just the right length for both of my uses. Mine don't get too beat up but they seem like they could take it. They charge and balance without issue at 1C, and I'm actually impressed by how quickly they balance. I take this to mean that the cells themselves are of good quality and well matched. What more can you say? Really no downsides. They're a killer value for the price. When I need 2S lipos, these are what I'll be buying from now on.

Good quality and great price...

July 30, 2018

Size: 2 pack Verified Purchase

Purchased for my kids Virhuck V01 1:12 4x4 RC truck. They work well and with the included charger that charges through the balance port. They seem to last longer than the stock battery even though they are both rated for 1500mah (these are better quality in my opinion). I have also used them on my new 1:10 scale 4x4 truck, with no issues until my bigger, 5200mah packs arrive. I have used them for about 10 charge/discharge cycles and see no signs of puffiness or other issues.

Doesnt fit wltoys a979b model

October 17, 2018

Size: 2 pack Verified Purchase

Purchased the battery for wltoys a979b after seeing it fits in the question and answer section. Battery works fine but doesnt fit this model, just a little to big to fit that battery compartment on the car.

Good product happy with purchase

January 9, 2019

Size: 2 pack Verified Purchase

I bought 2 of these Awanfi 7.4v 1500mah batteries for my stock WLtoys 12428. Good price at $24 for both. Quick shipping with Amazon Prime. Quality construction with nice wires and connectors. Way better punch than the blue li-ion that came with the 12428. Compared to the 7.4v 2200mah zop power from BG (which I also like), these "seem" to have a little more punch with almost same run time. The Awanfi's are a bit shorter so I added a 1/2 inch spacer for snug fit. Can't say anything about long term reliability with maybe a dozen charges, but so far the cells balance, 0 puffing, and stays relatively cool with speed runs and good ol' bashing fun.

Decent product

Decent batteries for the price. Doesn't last as long as other batteries with that same MAH. Could net tell the difference is speed on my rc car with this one and the 35c battery I bought from another brand.

Not much to say, they work as advertised. I've been using them for several times a week for around 3 months now and they are still well balanced and not showing any signs of puffing.

If you use a a969 or a979 model, don't purchase this battery. If you use an a959 though, it will fit it. Just tuck it into the embossing area where the cockpit would be on a real buggy and it won't fall out.
